

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY POLICY

SKILLS GROUP EQUALITY & DIVERSITY POLICY

POLICY STATEMENT

Skills Group Ltd is committed to the idea of equality of opportunities for all. We strive to maintain a transparent and open culture for all stakeholders. We believe it is everyone's responsibility to implement and promote this policy throughout the organisation and expect all staff and learners to share this commitment.

Our policy is set out to show our commitment to promote and implement Equality and Diversity when training learners. Our policy is available to all stakeholders and is published on our website. We ensure that the aims of the ESFA in ensuring Equality, Diversity and Social Inclusion are contained in all our policies and procedures. We do this by thinking about equality when we write any new policy or procedure.

We are totally opposed to Harassment and Bullying of any kind and we will meet our commitment under the Equality Act 2010 to publicly and proactively oppose all forms of discrimination.

Our Equality & Diversity Policy has the widest possible scope to ensure the dignity and human rights of every individual, including staff, learners and their families, employers, work placement providers, sub-contractors, service level agreement holders and members of the general public with whom we come into contact.

We will strive to ensure that no person involved or associated with Skills To Group Ltd and their subsidiaries, receive less favourable treatment on the grounds of nationality, religion, reverence, racial or ethnic origin, language or culture, disability including limitations to physical access or resources, marital status, responsibility for dependants, age, gender, including pregnant woman, nursing mother, or persons on maternity leave, gender identity, sexual orientation or preference, ability in literacy or numeracy, technical knowledge or skill, behavioural or learning difficulties, lack of ability or insufficient formal qualifications, being an ex-offender, substance abuse, social isolation and homelessness, unemployment, contract worker, asylum-seeking status or for any other identifiable discriminatory cause.

We believe in human rights for all those connected with this organisation and all members of society. No action shall be taken against them by any person connected with Skills Group Ltd which would devalue their contribution to society as a whole and to this organisation or lead to a loss of self-respect for them or respect for them from others.

However, we believe in order and social discipline both in society and in the organisation of Work Based Training and Education. We hold that we have the right to request a standard of dress appropriate with circumstance and safety at work and the aims of vocational training programmes.

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY POLICY

We will respect any request for confidentiality within the limits of the law. If the request for confidentiality is likely to limit our right to deal with Criminal or Health & Safety matters, then the law will take precedence over an individual's right to privacy. This will apply to all issues including those of disability.

The results of all Initial Assessments for learners and any tests for staff will always be given to them, and always in surroundings, which preserve individual confidentiality. We will abide by the Data Protection Act for all computer and documentary security including sensitive data.

We confirm that we will, if unable to help a person with learning difficulties or disabilities to access their chosen learning programme with us, refer them to other agencies or organisations so that a continuous pathway of help and advice is formed.

We will comply fully with the letter and intention of all laws and directives. We are committed to the fulfilment of all Agreements, Codes of Practice, Regulations and Acts, which may have implications for our role in vocational training. Amongst these are the:

- Equality Act 2010
- Health and Safety at Work Act 1974
- Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974
- Directive 2006\54\EC
- Protection from Harassment Act 1997 ((Amendment) Regulations 2005
- Treaty of Amsterdam 1997
- Public Interest Disclosures Act 1998
- Data Protection Act 1998
- Working Time Regulations 1998
- Human Rights Act 1998
- Part Time Workers Regulations 2000 (Prevention of less Favourable Treatment) Regulations
- Special Education Needs and Disability Act (SENDA) 2001
- ACAS code of practice

The responsibility for compliance and for the positive attitude required to ensure success is laid upon all individuals within the organisation. All external persons connected with Skills Group Ltd are encouraged to hold the same responsibility and commitment.

To protect staff and learners alike there will be procedures to ensure that each person is protected against harassment and bullying at work or during any part of training.

There will be procedures for redress of complaint, and for the re-evaluation of decisions taken by Assessors in accordance with the Appeals Procedure following any complaints from learners. A Complaints File will be kept, regularly reviewed and the causes of complaints analysed to prevent reoccurrence.

Anyone whose personal data is kept by Skills Group Ltd will have right of access to it.

EQUALITY AND DIVERSITY PROCEDURES

Our Equality Procedures are listed below:

- Advice and guidance against harassment and bullying.
- Advice and guidance on making Complaints and Grievances.
- The right to have a friend, supporter or mentor present during interviews.
- The Assessment Appeals Procedure.
- Access to personal data.
- Advice and guidance on referrals of learners to other agencies and organisations for further help and advice.
- Procedure for staff recruitment, selection, promotion, training, redundancy and retirement or dismissal.
- Procedure for learners' recruitment including avoidance of stereotyping.
- Guidance on advice and permissions to staff and learners concerning religious beliefs, including customs, festivals and holy days.
- Advice and guidance on the rehabilitation of ex-offenders.
- Restrictions in the use of the Internet – limitations on access to certain websites.
- Advice and guidance on the display of potentially offensive material
- Advice and guidance on the design and content of training materials and sessions
- Staff and learners' dress code

There will be control of the quality and wording of advertising and publicity.

There will be proper procedures for the recruitment of staff and learners, which meet the requirements for Equality & Diversity.

The facilities used by learners will be subject to regular formal review and necessary improvement. Learners will be encouraged to discuss their concerns both formally and informally in private if requested.

Training notes will be checked to ensure the contents do not offend any group. The use of electronic communication will be monitored to ensure that no offensive material is introduced into the training or working environment and that personal privacy of data is protected.

Management strategies and techniques will be regularly evaluated to ensure fairness of conduct.

The structure of training and its content will be evaluated to ensure that it does not offend or infringe upon any person's rights.

The workplace or work placement contract procedures will be examined periodically to ensure fairness. The wording of Contracts or Service Level Agreements will contain wording, which describes the Equality & Diversity Policy of Skills Group in an easily understandable way to any external organisation.

The wording of contracts for full and part-time staff including temporary and contracted consultants will also contain details of the policy.

A copy of this policy will be set out on the Skills Group HR system, People HR for all Staff. The policy will be updated yearly or when changes come into effect in accordance with Equality & Diversity legislation and working group action plan.

The dress code will take into account concerns by any person who's religious or ethnic customs require a particular type of dress. Fasting periods and other periodic religious or ethnic requirements including time and location and privacy for prayer will also be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Learners who wish to discuss issues they consider important in connection with diet, religious festivals and celebrations should talk to the Equality & Diversity Co-ordinator.

HARASSMENT AND BULLYING

Harassment is an unacceptable form of behaviour. All staff and learners can consider themselves fully protected by our anti-harassment and bullying policy at Skills Group, at workplaces or work placements or at any other place where work or training takes place.

The policy applies to staff and learners connected with this organisation. The occurrence of harassment must be reported to Skills Group, without fear or favour, even if there is a separate policy in place at a learners' workplace or work placement, which requires the incident to be reported to a workplace manager or supervisor.

Because learners are in receipt of government funding for their training they are to be separately protected by Skills Group at all times. Learners are to be politely questioned in confidence on each occasion of formal review and at other appropriate times as to their level of contentment with their workplace or work placement.

Confidential records of discussions concerning these aspects must be recorded and stored separately from the documentation connected with individual training plans.

Staff complaints about harassment will also be treated fully in confidence. Wherever possible, a person not involved with the learner or staff member on a day-to-day basis will investigate possible concerns.

This person will be known as the Confidential Mentor. References to complaints of any kind must be recorded in the Skills Group's complaints File. However, specific confidential aspects of complaints should be noted and filed in a sealed confidential envelope and deposited within the person's personal file.

In general terms any unacceptable or unwarranted behaviour, which disrupts the quality of life, or work of an individual is unacceptable to us. Although the examples set out below are not exclusive, they show types of unacceptable conduct, which are completely against our policy:

- Successive or single acts of bullying
- Verbal or physical abuse
- Ill-treatment
- Any offensive or oppressive act
- Any defamatory remark
- Causing a person to avoid or want to avoid any social, work, or training environment through poor behaviour towards them
- Ill-advised comments or harassment about any person's sex, sexual orientation (including lesbian, male homosexual or bisexual transitional sexual status under the Gender Reassignment Regulations), religion or belief including philosophical belief, race or ethnic origin, disability or age, marital status.
- Any abuse of a position of authority by a staff member over a learner or to another staff member
- Being under the influence of alcohol will be considered to aggravate the offence, and will not constitute an excuse for it.

HARASSING ASPECTS OF POTENTIALLY OFFENSIVE DISPLAY OF GRAPHIC MATERIALS

Our policy is that it cannot be assumed that because one person does not find such material offensive, so all must put up with it. We will not put anyone in a situation in which they have to request that such items be removed.

You are not to make available:

- The display of sexual material on posters or in any other form including graffiti.
- Any written or printed material intended to show that any person is inferior in any way, including any sexual or racist aspect.
- The use of 'playboy' or 'playgirl' style calendars or other potentially offensive magazines or pictures including those of a soft pornographic nature.
- Do not use the Internet to research, hold on screen, download, attach to email, send or otherwise interact with any sexual or pornographic image, or to connect to any website containing such material. If you type in a keyword and the under/over 18 sign appears on the screen – select NO and do not choose to reveal any 'adult material'.

Managers and Supervisors of learners at external workplaces or work placements are to be asked directly, without embarrassment, fear or favour to remove potentially offensive items from the workplaces of government funded learners as part of the external company's commitment to the Equality & Diversity and Protection from Harassment.

To reiterate, no learner will be put in a position of having to ask that material offensive to him or her be removed.

FALSE ACCUSATION

Skills Group Ltd will hold it as an offence against this Equality & Diversity Policy if any person gives a false accusation against another learner or staff member. Accusations of a false nature can be deemed as legally defamatory. All those involved in the investigation of any complaint must keep the matter strictly confidential.

RIGHT TO ADVICE AND COUNSELLING

Skills Group Ltd will ensure that all persons have a right to Advice and Legal protection. This will be achieved by either a person appointed by Skills Group giving advice in confidence to any learner or staff member, or by referral to an external specialist source such as a solicitor or counselling agency.

Time off from training or staff work will be given to attend external appointments until such matters are resolved.

POSITIVE DISCRIMINATION AGAINST GENDER STEREOTYPES

All staff shall make every effort to inform learners of opportunities to break out of stereotypical roles at work.

Vocational Training Providers are permitted by law to be proactive in trying to introduce men and women into areas of work not considered normal activity for a particular sex.

Examples of this would be to encourage more men into Hairdressing and Care Homework, more women into Engineering and Building Work.

Stereotyping can occur within working environments too – for example, expecting women always to make the tea or do washing up or expect men always to change light bulbs or mend electrical fuses or plugs. Staff are to be aware of these aspects and show an example to learners in how to combat them.

STAFF AND LEARNERS' RECRUITMENT/INTERVIEWS AND INITIAL ASSESSMENTS

Equality and Diversity will influence recruitment of employees and learners. Skills Group has a policy that access to staff contracts and to training programmes is open and fair.

Potential staff and Learners are to be told at the beginning of any interview that Skills Group Equality & Diversity Policy covers it.

They are to be told that if they consider the manner or questioning to be ill-advised or too personal or intrusive they should feel free to comment upon it with fear. Such questions can then be re-worded or avoided by interviewing staff as appropriate.

No person shall be forced to put down any detail their application, which they are concerned, might lead to an infringement of their human rights unless the declaration is required by the law.

Initial Assessment, Literacy, Numeracy or other determiner of current ability will be carried out so that the results of the tests are kept confidential. These results will always be given to the learner concerned on a one-to-one basis in confidence.

No unnecessary testing is to take place. Staff or learners who can show for educational reasons or reasons of previous experience or qualification that they already possess a skill or ability should not be tested for it initially.

Should this ability or skill prove to be in need of refreshment at a later time, and then such a test can take place with the agreement of the staff member or learner.

ACCREDITATION OR PRIOR LEARNING AND TIME OFF FOR LEARNING

Learner's previous experience and qualifications must be formally taken into account for the purposes of accreditation of prior learning for Qualifications and Credit Frameworks.

Staff will be entitled to training for the needs of their job and also for personal development. Staff are to negotiate time off the job for learners to carry out personal study for their programme or for formal training sessions at work, or in the Skills Group centre.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

All staff and learners will be protected from defects in their working environments, which fall below standards set out in the Health and Safety at Work Act.

It is the duty of any staff member or learner to immediately point out unsafe equipment or situations.

In the case of dangerous circumstances, staff and learners are empowered to warn people to keep clear of any area.

First Aiders will be trained and appointed. An Accident Book will be available.

Learners and staff will be required to practice Fire Evacuation and Assembly at designated points.

The Public Liability Insurance certificate will be displayed and kept current.

SELECTION FOR REDUNDANCY OR REDEPLOYMENT TO ANOTHER POST

All Direct or Indirect Discrimination will be avoided during selection processes for any redundancies or for redeployment to other or new posts.

Nursing mothers, those expecting or on maternity leave will all be protected according to statute.

VICTIMISATION

No person, staff or learner shall be victimised as a result of them giving information about any act by a person which contravenes this Equality & Diversity Policy.

Persons making allegations, which are proved to be false, will be dealt with in accordance with the Staff Procedures for Dismissal.

Any staff member who bullies or harasses another staff member or learner who they believe has made an accusation against them, whether it be proved or not, shall be liable to dismissal.

All staff will be able to report matters detailed in the Public Interest Disclosure Act 1998 without fear.

MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITY AND VICARIOUS LIABILITY

The Managing Director and all other managers and supervisors accept full responsibility for the discharge of the various laws and Acts of Parliament. They fully understand the implications for them of vicarious liability.

COOPERATION BY STAFF AND LEARNERS

As a part of Skills Group you have a duty to cooperate and comply with any measures set out to improve or sustain the concept of Equality & Diversity.

You must report bullying and harassment.

You must not encourage or allow others by omission to carry out any discriminatory act.

STAFF AND LEARNERS – RIGHT TO INFORM/TRAINING

All staff will be given full training in implementing the policy and forms part of their CPD and observation process. This training will be reviewed annually unless changes to legislation where staff are informed in a timely fashion.

All staff and learners will receive initial, regular and updating briefings on all appropriate aspects for Equality & Diversity, Rights and Responsibilities.

As long as you are a member of this organisation or a participant in one of its training programmes you have an obligation to act in accordance with the ethos set out in this policy at all times, including your time away from work or training.

QUERIES AND CONCERNS

All queries and concerns about Equality & Diversity issues should be referred to The Equality & Diversity Manager, Debra Rowan.

SUGGESTIONS FOR IMPROVEMENT

Please feel free to offer suggestions on the improvement of Equality & Diversity Systems and Procedures within this organisation.
